The Charge of the Light Brigade (poem) - Wikipedia

Take up the White Man's burden —
The savage wars of peace —
Fill full the mouth of Famine
And bid the sickness cease;
And when your goal is nearest
The end for others sought,
Watch sloth and heathen Folly
Bring all your hopes to nought.

Take up the White Man's burden —
No tawdry rule of kings,
But toil of serf and sweeper —
The tale of common things.

In this case, given that we are talking about a single minority, presumably acting in concert, I would lean toward "its". The use of the plural "voices" complicates that interpretation slightly, but I think it still works. However, if the plural "their" were used, then the collective noun should also take the plural verb "make".
